The exhibition offered art enthusiasts and the public opportunities to engage with the artwork through various events, including the opening reception, live performances by the artists, networking sessions, and panel discussions. Notable artists such as Htein Linn, San Oo, and Phyu Mon participated in a panel discussion titled "My Body Is My Tool" on December 21st, exploring intriguing themes and captivating audiences with thought-provoking performances.

This exhibition is part of Goethe Institute Myanmar's ongoing commitment to promoting cultural exchange and fostering opportunities for language and artistic expression.
